

Man charged in death of his mother

COMMERCE — A Dallas-area man has been charged with murdering his mother, whose body was found in the trunk of her car parked at a motel Friday, authorities said.

Timothy ██████████, 20, was being held without bond in his hometown of Richardson, police said.

Authorities alleged he killed his mother, Barbara ██████████, 47, early Wednesday and drove her body to Commerce, where he and a companion were arrested at a motel.

██████████ was returned to Richardson to face charges and his companion was freed.

Commerce Department of Public Safety Chief Fred Stansbury said Mrs. ██████████ had been beaten and stabbed. Her hands and feet were bound.
