

IN THE CHANCERY COURT OF LEE COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

MARCIA [REDACTED] PLAINTIFF

VS. CAUSE NO. 37,992

GORDON [REDACTED] DEFENDANT

FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard and was heard commencing January 9, 1989, on the Amended Complaint, Answers and Counter-claim filed herein, and the Court having heard testimony, and having reviewed the exhibits and pleadings and considered the arguments of counsel, and being fully advised in the premises, makes the following findings of fact:

1. Both parties are adult resident citizens of Lee County, Mississippi, and have resided in said State and County for more than six (6) months preceding the filing of this cause, and this Court finds that it has jurisdiction of the subject matter and the parties.

2. The parties are of the white race, were married in Savannah, Georgia, on November 4, 1967; and lived together as Husband and Wife from that date until the date of their separation in or about the months of March or April, 1988, which separation occurred in Lee County, Mississippi.

3. Of the marriage of the parties, two children were born, namely Jennifer [REDACTED] born January 14, 1973, and Julie [REDACTED] born November 1, 1974. No other children have been born to the marriage, or are expected.

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

7. Based upon the pleadings, evidence, and stipulations of the parties through counsel, the Court is of the opinion and finds that the Plaintiff, Marcia [REDACTED] is entitled to the primary care, custody and control of both of the minor children, namely Jennifer [REDACTED] and Julie [REDACTED]

8. Based upon the evidence, pleadings and stipulations of the parties through counsel, the Court finds that the Defendant, [REDACTED] is entitled to reasonable rights of visitation with the minor children to include alternating week-ends, Christmas visitation to alternate the week before Christmas and the week after Christmas from year to year, alternating Thanksgiving visitation on an annual basis, visitation during spring break to alternate on an annual basis, and two three week periods per summer visitation.

12. The Court is of the opinion and finds that both parties are employed and that, prior to their separation, their combined income approached One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) gross annual income and, based upon said finding, the standard of living which the parties had established, the disparity in the parties' income, and the needs of the children orders the Defendant, Gordon [REDACTED] to make payments as set forth more particularly in the following findings of fact.

13. The Court is of the opinion and finds that the Plaintiff, Marcia [REDACTED] is entitled to payment from the Defendant, Gordon [REDACTED] of Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) per month per minor child, for a total of Eight Hundred Dollars ($800.00) per month for the support and maintenance of the minor children commencing February 1, 1989. The Court further finds and is of the opinion that so long as the minor child, Jennifer [REDACTED] is in Straight in Atlanta, Georgia, the Defendant, Gordon [REDACTED] should be required to pay an additional One Hundred Seventy-five Dollars (175.00) per month commencing February, 1989.

14. The Court is of the opinion that the Defendant, Gordon [REDACTED] should be required to maintain medical and hospitalization insurance coverage on the minor children of the parties, and that any and all medical, hospital, surgical and dental expenses not covered by insurance shall be shared equally by the parties, commencing February, 1989.

Court is of the opinion and finds that the Defendant, Gordon [REDACTED] should be responsible for alimony payments to the Plaintiff, Marcia [REDACTED] in the amount of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month commencing February, 1989, said payments to continue on a monthly basis, but to increase to Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) at such time as the minor child, Jennifer [REDACTED] is discharged or released from the Straight program in Atlanta, Georgia, and said payments to increase to the amount of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) per month at such time as the house of the parties on [REDACTED] is sold. Provided, further, that, in any event, the total amount of alimony to be paid by the Defendant, Gordon [REDACTED] shall not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).

17. The Court has also considered the request by the Plaintiff, Marcia [REDACTED] for emergency relief consisting of a request for Five Thousand Three Hundred Dollars ($5,300.00) for amounts due to the medical needs of the minor child, Jennifer [REDACTED] and further requests for other emergency relief, and is of the opinion and finds that the Defendant, Gordon [REDACTED] shall be responsible for payment of Two Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($2,250.00) directly to the Straight program in Atlanta, Georgia, which payment is due on or before January 27, 1989. The Court is further of the opinion and finds that on the remaining requests for emergency relief, the Defendant, Gordon [REDACTED] shall pay, within sixty (60) days the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) to the Plaintiff, Marcia [REDACTED]
