DESCRIPTION

NURSE OPENING - RN/LPN

We know that your success and ours depends on working with the most talented, hard working professionals in the industry.

* 25 YRS ??

Our organization has been providing a variety of professional services to children, adolescents, young adults and their families for over 25 years. We are a drug and alcohol day treatment center located in Milford. Our dedicated staff of professionals are experts in substance abuse and behavioral problems, as well as being compassionate catalysts for change. The program is clinically managed with on-site:

- Medical Care
- Psychological tests
- Individual, group and family therapy
- Peer mentoring
- On-site school
- Gender groups
- Alternative housing
- Drug screening

We provide an existing structured Day Treatment Program for adolescents from the ages of 13 to 18. The program addresses the developmental needs of adolescents and involves a client-focused, five-phase model.

We are expanding to include onsite nursing/client-case management. We are seeking an experienced Nurse. Background in an adolescent and/or family clinical or therapeutic environment is desirable.

Background preferred:

- LPN or RN

- 2 – 4 years of experience
- Substance abuse credentialing/experience is preferred
- Clinical judgment
- Flexibility
- Sensitivity
- Confidentiality
- Organizational awareness
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Ability to relate well to and enjoy teenagers and their families

We offer a traditional 40-hour week, Monday through Friday, full benefit package, dedicated colleagues and the opportunity to make a significant contribution to the growth of a highly successful treatment organization.

To apply, send your resume, attached as a WORD DOCUMENT, to Betsy Hickman, COO,
