OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON

May 25, 1983

Robert L. DuPont, M.D.
President
The American Council for Drug Education, Inc.
6193 Executive Boulevard
Rockville, MD 20852

Dear Dr. DuPont:

Thank you for your letter on behalf of the American Council for Drug Education Inc. (CDE), inviting the Vice President to be the keynote speaker at its national conference to be held between September 19-20, 1983 in Alexandria, Virginia.

Unfortunately, because of the demands foreseen on the Vice President's time during the month of September, it will not be possible to add this event to his schedule.

The Vice President asked me to express his appreciation for your thoughtful invitation and to extend his best wishes for a highly successful conference.

Sincerely,

Jennifer A. Fitzgerald

OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON

March 29, 1984

Dr. Robert L. Du Pont, MD.
President, American Council
 for Drug Education
Post Office Box 42222
Washington, D.C.   20015-0822

Dear Dr. Du Pont:

     Thank you for your recent letter to the Vice President concerning membership to the American Council for Drug Education.

     The Vice President appreciates your contacting him and wishes he could participate in your program;
however, the tremendous volume of requests of this nature prohibits the Vice President from contributing to all of them. Regrettably, he must decline your request.

     Thank you for your understanding.

                    Sincerely,

                    Susan Cockrell
                    Director of Administration
