Editor, The Record:

I am the father of a 19-year-old girl who has successfully undergone treatment in the KIDS of Bergen County drug-rehabilitation program. I have nothing but undying gratitude for this program, which has returned my daughter to society as a loving and caring human being.

It was with great sadness that I read the July 27 article in The Record, reporting that the people of Hasbrouck Heights have decided not to let children from this program temporarily reside in their town. I'm glad there are still parents, such as the McCoys, who are willing to give up everything to save the lives of children. It's a shame that they are met with ignorance and misunderstanding in Hasbrouck Heights.
