

NKU honors 3 for their service

Kentucky Post, The (Covington, KY) (Published as The Kentucky Post) - March 18, 2000

- Author/Byline: Peggy Kreimer, Post staff reporter
- Edition: Kentucky
- Section: News
- Page: 2K

The ninth annual Northern Kentucky University Lincoln Award will go to Judith Gibbons of Lakeside Park, John W. "Jack" Steinman of Fort Thomas and George Schaefer Jr. of Cincinnati.

The winners, announced Friday, will be presented April 18 at the Clarion Hotel Riverview in Covington. The award was established in 1992 to honor people who have a strong, positive influence on the community through their professional and personal commitments and achievements. Mrs. Gibbons is vice president for community affairs for Lee Hecht Harrison, a career management firm in Cincinnati and Covington, and previously was vice president of finance.

She is vice chair of the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce. Her other activities include membership on the boards of the Northern Kentucky Symphony and the Education Alliance of Northern Kentucky. Steinman is chairman of the board of Deluxe Engraving in Cincinnati. He is former president of Greater Cincinnati Kids Helping Kids and a founder and first president of the Fort Thomas Library, which is now part of Campbell County Public Library. Schaefer was named president and CEO of Fifth Third Bancorp in 1990. He is a West Point graduate with degrees in engineering and business. His board memberships include the University of Cincinnati and the Kenton County Airport Board.

Tickets for the awards dinner are $65 per person at the NKU Office of University Advancement, 572-5129.

- Caption: Photo (3)Judith Gibbons John Steinman George Schaefer

- Record: KNP031800065920144
- Copyright: Copyright 2000 The Kentucky Post

Sunday's River Hop benefits Kids Helping Kids program

Kentucky Post, The (Covington, KY) - June 10, 2000

- Edition: KENTUCKY

- Page: 6K

Runners can test their skills while helping kids with drug and alcohol problems by entering the Chiquita Brands River Hop 8 on Sunday.

The 5K and 10K races and fitness walk begin at 8 a.m. at the Northern Kentucky Convention Center, 1 RiverCenter Blvd., Covington. Both races take runners across the Ohio River to Cincinnati, then back into Kentucky. Entry fee is $20 the day of the race.

The morning will include refreshments, music and information booths both before and after the event.

Proceeds benefit Kids Helping Kids, a long-term rehabilitation program for adolescents with drug and alcohol problems. Located in Milford, Ohio, it serves children from Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky. The nonprofit organization must raise more than $200,000 annually to make up the difference between the participants' fees and actual treatment costs.

Those who don't want to run but want to help can do so by sponsoring a participating runner or walker.

Information: 474-1399.

- Record: KNP06100003850001

- Copyright: Copyright 2000 The Kentucky Post

Grants awarded

Cincinnati Post, The (OH) - July 6, 2000

- Edition: FINAL
- Section: NEWS
- Page: 13A

The Foundation of the Cincinnati Academy of Medicine awarded a grant of $10,000 to Neighborhood Health Care to help renovate its new Auburn Avenue clinic, which provides care to indigent families. The foundation also gave $6,500 to Crossroad Health Center in Over-the-Rhine and $5,000 to Kids Helping Kids, a drug and alcohol rehabilitation program for teens.

- Memo: Local Report

Local Report

HEALTH

- Record: CNP07060004670002
- Copyright: Copyright 2000 The Cincinnati Post

HOLIDAY ON ICE

Kentucky Post, The (Covington, KY) - December 23, 2000

- Edition: KENTUCKY
 - Section: SPORTS
 - Page: 8K
-
- Caption: photoMELVIN GRIER/The Post-Samantha Skavdahl performed Friday at the Northern Kentucky Skating Club's presentation of "A Winter Skating Exhibition." The club has had a national medalist every year since 1996, and this year nine skaters from the club have qualified for nationals. Proceeds from the event, sponsored by Cinergy, will go to Kids Helping Kids, the Diocesan Children's Home of Northern Kentucky and the Freestore.
 - Memo: Stand alone art
-
- Record: KNP12230002080001
 - Copyright: Copyright 2000 The Kentucky Post