The Cincinnati Beacon

KHK Protest Friday, March 31st
Sunday, March 26, 2006

Posted by The Dean of Cincinnati

To Cincinnati Beacon Readers and Concerned Citizens:

You are cordially invited to attend an event scheduled to be held in Columbus, Ohio, at the McKinley Memorial in Capitol Square, from Noon until 6pm Friday, March 31. The purpose of this event is to educate the public and Ohio Government about the systematic physical and psychological abuses being perpetrated in a drug treatment program called Kids Helping Kids in Milford OH. These abuses are being ignored by ODADAS and the Office of the First Lady Hope Taft. Please join us in supporting the call to end this abuse once and for all.

Thank you for your continuing interest in the KHK story.

Sincerely,

Straight, Inc. Survivors

I'm looking forward holding my sign that says...

"No Child Should Be Abused In The Name of Treatment!"

In the spirit of support for childhood victims of sexual and physical abuse, I'm posting this website. It highlights the serious issue of abuse by Jehovah's Witnesses which per capita, worldwide, makes the Catholic Church scandal look like child's play (no pun intended).

In "The accidental activist," the story about one former child member of 'The Family' also fairly accurately describes how Straight operated (with a few obvious differences). Despite witnessing and being subjected to similar things described in the article, it still shocks me that so many secretive groups are rarely held accountable for their abuses against innocent children.

'Accidental activist' has a special significance this week, in light of this weeks Columbus protest. 'Accidental activists' will be protesting in an effort to persuade ODADAS and Ohio lawmakers to aggressively monitor and investigate KHK, to demand that KHK be held accountable for unethical and questionable treatment/assessment methods, and to encourage these same Ohio officials to
