Newton Clarifies Story On His Tax Assessment

Times Bureau

NEW PORT RICHEY — Miller Newton, Pasco County clerk of the circuit court, asked for clarification on a north Suncoast Times story Monday that said Newton's property assessment had been too low.

"The assessment was correct but was recorded as too low by a typographical error," Newton said. "It was through the correct assessment that we were able to correct the error in a matter of minutes."

Newton last week called the tax assessor's office and asked that the error be corrected — resulting in a $10,000 increase on the taxable valuation of Newton's Tampa Downs home.
