'Party' politics is back

By RUBY CARLEY
Pasco Times Staff Writer

NEW PORT RICHEY — Politics and the coming primary elections are generating many social events in West Pasco.

Thursday evening, Bob and Edna Gwynn entertained a large group of friends at a party at their home in New Port Richey for Richard Kelly, candidate for Congress, Walter Voorhees, chairman of the Pasco County Commission who is running for re-election; and Ron Richmond, state representative who also is seeking re-election.

Kelly, who was speaking in another city, was represented by C. John Brasher.

The guests, in addition to the candidates and their wives, included Mrs. Millic Newton, Mrs. E. Miller Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Dunkle, Dr. Jim Hollingsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Crimmins, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Dobry, Mr. and Mrs. Lem Troster, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Swartzel, Mrs. Frank Robson Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Abe Kearnes, Alex Acey, Tom Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hope, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Snell, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dryden and many other West Pasco residents.
