Suit against Newton is dismissed

Pasco Times Bureau

NEW PORT RICHEY — One of two suits recently filed against former Pasco circuit clerk Miller Newton was dismissed voluntarily Monday.

New Port Richey lawyer David L. Anderson dismissed the County Court suit he filed against Newton after the former clerk made arrangements to settle an $1,879 campaign debt.

Anderson filed the suit to collect legal fees he says were associated with a suit that Newton filed against JoAnn Saunders, his opponent for the Democratic nomination for the 5th Congressional District seat.

Newton says he is trying to pay all of his campaign debts.
