MontCo parents head fund-raiser for Straight Inc.

GAITHERSBURG — Parents involved in a non-profit rehabilitation program for drug abusers ages 12 to 21 are selling tickets for a custom-built brick colonial home in Seneca Valley Estates

Proceeds from the $100 ticket sales will be turned over to Straight Inc., a family oriented program based on "kids helping kids" and "parents helping parents."

One of about 60 Montgomery County parents involved in the program that started in Springfield, Va., last October said the drawing will be held at the Pooks Hill Marriott in Bethesda on Jan. 30 at 8:30 p.m. It will follow "an awareness program" designed to focus attention on the "epidemic proportions drug abuse among our teen-agers has reached."

The four-bedroom home at 7550 Damascus Road, Gaithersburg, is being held open for inspection and ticket purchases every Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Located on a wooded three-acre site, the house has been appraised for $193,500.

For more information on how to buy a ticket or become involved in the Straight program, call 469-7175.
