

Drug rehabilitation speakers

A mother and her son recently addressed the Francis Scott Key Lions Club on the drug rehabilitation program conducted by Straight Inc., a Florida-based organization that has an area chapter in Springfield, Va. The son, Arnie [REDACTED], a 20-year-old who had been a drug abuser since the sixth grade, told how he was successfully rehabilitated during the eight months he has been in the Straight program. His mother, Mae [REDACTED], related her experiences in helping her son overcome his drug problem and explaining the role parents play in the rehabilitation program. From left are William Grove, Lions program chairman; Mae [REDACTED], Arnie [REDACTED] and Eugene Rolls, FSK Lions president.
