

42 of 62 DOCUMENTS

The Washington Post

December 6, 1988, Tuesday, Final Edition

CORRECTION

SECTION: FIRST SECTION; PAGE A3

LENGTH: 49 words

The organization that sponsored some of the teen-agers attending Saturday's screening of "My Stepmother Is an Alien," with President-elect George Bush and others, was incorrectly identified in a story in yesterday's Style section. It was Straight Inc., an adolescent drug treatment program.

LANGUAGE: ENGLISH

TYPE: CORRECTION

Copyright 1988 The Washington Post

73 of 1000 DOCUMENTS

The Washington Post

December 22, 1988, Thursday, Final Edition

BULLETIN BOARDBYLINE: Angela WalkerSECTION: VIRGINIA WEEKLY; PAGE V11LENGTH: 490 words

" The Booster Club of Greater Washington Straight Inc. is selling Christmas trees and wreaths to benefit the drug rehabilitation programs for adolescents. Because Straight is a nonprofit organization, part of the cost of the tree is tax deductible. The Christmas tree lot is at Landmark Shopping Center, 5839 Duke St., Alexandria. Call 642-1980.

" The Children's Theatre of Arlington will conduct auditions for the spring musical, "The Twelve Dancing Princesses," from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Jan. 9-10 at Gunston Arts Center, 2700 S. Lang St., Arlington. Actors, singers and dancers ages 9 to 14 are welcome to audition. No preparation is necessary, but auditioners will be asked to sing a song. Call 548-1154.

" Have a cup of coffee or hot chocolate with your neighborhood firefighters in return for donations of canned food for needy families in Fairfax County. Individuals, civic groups and businesses may take donations to the Fairfax Volunteer Fire Department, Fire Station No. 3, 4081 University Dr., anytime through Christmas Eve. Call 385-7877.

" Employee of the Year nominations are being solicited in Falls Church. The award recognizes outstanding achievement by a city employee in leadership, promotion of efficiency and exemplary job performance. Nomination instruction sheets are available at the Community Center, the Police Department, the Public Information Office or the Department of Personnel. The City Employees Review Board will select the winner. Nominations are due in the Department of Personnel by March 1. Call 241-5025.

" Requests for federal and state funds to support public transportation and ride-sharing programs must be submitted to the Virginia Department of Transportation by Feb. 15. Projects eligible for funding include technical assistance, experimental grants, ride-sharing programs and administrative expenses. Program information packages and applications are available by writing to Linda Eads, Rail and Public Transportation Division, Virginia Department of Transportation, 1401 East Broad St., Richmond, Va. 23219 or call 804-786-1154.

" Do it right now. Learn to overcome procrastination by enrolling in a workshop sponsored by The Women's Center of Northern Virginia from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Jan. 14. Management consultant Janice Cairns will help identify procrastinating styles and determine the solutions that work best. There is a $ 15 fee per person. The session will be at the Vienna Community Center, 120 Cherry St. SW, Vienna. For information and registration, call 281-2657.

" Connections, a cross-cultural foster care and counseling agency, is recruiting foster parents for young people from foreign countries, ages 7 to 17. Individuals interested in learning about the foster parenting program, or in volunteering in another capacity, are invited to attend an orientation at 7 p.m. Jan. 10 at the Connections office, 701 W. Broad St., Suite 305, Falls Church. Call 533-3302.