Straight director resigns

MT. REPOSE, Ohio — Edward Stach, the first permanent director of Straight Inc., has resigned.

David Crock, formerly assistant director of the center who has been named interim director, said Friday that Stach had resigned earlier in the week for personal reasons unrelated to his work at Straight.

Stach could not be reached for comment.

survivingstraightinc.com