Crash Kills Princeton Student

CLIFTON FORGE, Va., Feb. 1 (UP)—A Princeton University theological student was killed and two classmates were injured near here today when their car swerved and smashed into an oncoming truck. The state police said John Lee Robinson, 21 years old, of Toledo, Ohio, was killed instantly. The injured were identified as Virgil Miller Newton III, 18, of Tampa, Fla., and John Suydam Kuhlthau, 20, of Milltown, N. J.

NY Times, Feb 2 (1957), Pg 35

survivingstraightinc.com